Egész testével zenél

2005. február 7.

„Együtt énekelek a hegedűmmel, és magam komponálom a zeném. Fellépek otthon a hazámban és a világon mindenütt. Ez a hivatásom. A hegedű az egyik legszebb hangszer – alakítja a valómat, felébreszti érzéseimet, érzelmeimet, esztétikailag betölt, képes a zenében a legmagasabb értékek felmutatására, köztem és a többi ember közt beszél. Ezért szeretem. És szeretni annyi, mint élni!" – fogalmazta meg ars poeticáját pár éve Iva Bittová, és nehéz ehhez bármit hozzátenni.

Ennek a negyvenöt éves, morva–roma énekes-hegedűsnek a muzikalitása valósággal dermesztő, nemcsak hangjával és hangszerével játszik – egész testével zenél. Néha szinkronban, néha aszinkronban. Bármilyen tárgyat vesz a kezébe, az hangszerként szólal meg, a rendelkezésre álló eszközök, a lehetőségek nem korlátozzák a önkifejezésben. Nemcsak hallani, látni is élmény, nem hiába tanult valamikor színészetet.

Szinte hazajár Magyarországra, az elmúlt dekádban alig akadt olyan év, hogy legalább egyszer ne tette volna tiszteletét nálunk. Vagy Budapesten, vagy a győri Mediawave-en. De bármennyiszer is jött, gondoskodott róla, hogy ne lehessen megunni, jószerivel ahány alkalom, annyiféle programmal érkezett. Adott szólóestet, Dorothea Kellerovával játszotta Bartók hegedűduóit, a gitáros Vladimír Václavekkel a Bílé Infernót mutatta be, máskor a Lelky Leánykórussal lépett fel, megint máskor egy cseh dj-vel pörgött nagyokat, legutóbb pedig a holland Netherlands Blazers Ensemble-val prezentálta Leos Janacek és saját szerzeményeit.

Ezúttal egy német csembalóművész hölggyel, Barbara Maria Willivel lép fel február 10-én, a Petőfi híd budai hídfőjénél horgonyzó A38 hajón. Hozzá illő környezetben, a MOLto Vivace-szériában. A hajó gazdáinak és programszervezőinek nagy álma volt ugyanis, hogy Közép-Európa gazdag hagyományokra épülő, lüktető és változatos zenei kultúráját egy sorozat keretei között mutassák be Budapest erre fogékony közönségének. Egy olyan sorozat keretei között, mely egyszerre őrzi meg az élő koncertek intimitását, és lép ki abból, hogy ne csak a látogatók részesüljenek az élményből, hisz az ottani történések portréműsorok számára szolgálnak alapanyagul, melyeket a térség több közszolgálati tévécsatornája (nálunk a Duna Televízió) tűz később műsorára.

Az ősszel már sok rácsodálkozásra alkalmat adó, és januárban folytatódó MOLto Vivace-sorozat célja tehát a kortárs közép-európai dzsessz és világzene bemutatása. E széria részeként jött el nemrég hozzánk a lengyel dzsessz nagy öregje, Zbigniew Namyslowski, és érkezik az elkövetkező hónapokban Budapestre a horvát

The European Library provides a central gateway to access the online catalogues and digital collections of Europe's national libraries.

This means you can:

- Search in the collections of up to 20 national libraries at once and get results from all over Europe - you can also choose which language you would like The European Library website in.

- Check if your item is online: who better to ask than Europe's national libraries?!

- Find the physical location of your item if it is not digitally available, and get direct access to the 'delivery' services offered by the national libraries

- Access from the search results the online availability resources beyond The European Library: online bookshops to purchase the selected item, search engines to investigate further, etc.

You can also explore the digital collections and catalogues of Europe's national libraries. This is very easy. Take a look under the "collections" button and be amazed by the diversity of material you can find.

EU Vision for a European digital library

"A common multilingual access point would make it possible to search Europe's distributed – that is to say, held in different places by different organisations – digital cultural heritage online. Such an access point would increase its visibility and underline common features. The access point should build on existing initiatives such as The European Library (TEL), in which Europe's libraries already cooperate. It should where possible closely associate private holders of rights in cultural material and all interested stakeholders. A strong commitment by the Member states and cultural institutions to arrive at such an access point should be encouraged.
