

University of Belgrade
University Library “Svetozar Markovic”
Aleksandra Popovic and Sanja Antonic
popovic@unilib.bg.ac.rs, antonice@unilib.bg.ac.rs

Statistical analysis of citation results for researchers in Serbia

17th annual CONFERENCE ON PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION RESOURCES

May 24–26, 2011, Prague

Professors at the University of Belgrade

Structure of 121.239 citations found 2003-2010

Number of citations in 2008, 2009 and 2010

Number of requests

Rising Stars > January 2011

Current Classics

Top Topics

Rising Stars

New Entrants

Country Profiles

ABOUT SCIENCE WATCH

SHARE

Once again, Serbia has achieved the highest percent increase in total citations in multiple fields. Pakistan has also achieved Rising Star status in two fields. The full list of institutions named as Rising Stars for this period is given below:

Country	Field
SERBIA	Agricultural Sciences
SERBIA	Biology & Biochemistry
SERBIA	Chemistry
SERBIA	Clinical Medicine
SERBIA	Computer Science
LITHUANIA	Economics & Business
SERBIA	Engineering
GHANA	Environment/Ecology
SAUDI ARABIA	Geosciences
BULGARIA	Immunology
SERBIA	Materials Science
SERBIA	Mathematics
PAKISTAN	Microbiology
YUGOSLAVIA	Molecular Biology & Genetics
WALES	Multidisciplinary
SERBIA	Neuroscience & Behavior
SERBIA	Pharmacology & Toxicology
SERBIA	Physics
PAKISTAN	Plant & Animal Science
TRINID & TOBAGO	Psychiatry/Psychology
ETHIOPIA	Social Sciences, general
SERBIA	Space Science

An employee looks out sprouts planted inside an office of Pasona Group, an employment and staffing company, during a photo opportunity in Tokyo October 20, 2010.

Vegetables, fruits and rice are grown and harvested by the employees at the company's "urban farm", aimed at creating a working environment coexisting with nature, according to the company. REUTERS/Yuriko Nakao.

Thank You !
www.unilib.bg.ac.rs